

ARTICLE IV
AMENDMENTS, RESOLUTIONS, AND OTHER MATTERS

V. The executive board, in the case of an emergency, may amend the Constitution and the Bylaws if a vote to make the proposed amendment results in the affirmative with a vote of ($\frac{3}{4}$) of all votes cast by the executive board.